THE [Numb. 741.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, July 19, 1759.

LANDSHUT, in the Mountains of Sileſia, April 25.

ON the 19th Inſtant the Pruſſian Infantry marched from Bolkenhayn, and fixed the Head Quarters at Landſhut; the Troops that were behind had Orders likewiſe to advance, and are cantoned in the Villages in the Mountains along this Frontier.

This Morning an Out-Guard of Huſſars was attacked by about 300 Auſtrian Cavalry. The Officer that commanded the Pruſſian Party retired to Libau, with the Loſs only of one Man taken Priſoner. It is ſaid the Right of the Auſtrian Army is at Braunau, and the Left extends to Gabel.

Prince Henry of Pruſſia's Head Quarters at Linay, in Bohemia, April 27. The greateſt Part of the Auſtrian Troops, which were upon the Borders of Saxony, having marched towards the Frontiers of Sileſia, and the Empire, his Royal Highneſs Prince Henry formed a Deſign of driving ſuch of them as ſtill remained in Bohemia beyond the Eger, and ſeizing the Magazines which the Enemy had upon the Elbe, and in their late Quarters; and accordingly the Pruſſians entered Bohemia the 15th Inſtant. One Column marched towards Peterſwalde, and another, under the Command of General Hulſen, towards Paſberg and Commotau. The Van Guard of that which marched to Peterſwalde, found the Epaulement behind the Village furniſhed by a Redoubt, before which a conſiderable Number of felled Trees were laid, defended by 800 Croats, and ſome Hungarian Infantry: This Poſt was forced, and, upon that Occaſion, a Major and about 50 Men were made Priſoners, and 25 of the Enemy were left dead upon the Spot. The Time neceſſary for clearing a Way for the Paſſage of the Troops, facilitated the Enemy's Retreat, and gave the Alarm to their Quarters. The Van Guard divided into two Bodies, one of which marched to Auſſig, and the other to Teplitz, but the Enemy retired on all Sides with the greateſt Precipitation.

The Magazine at Auſſig was deſtroyed, and all the Boats on the Elbe were burnt. The Van Guard joined again on the 16th at Welmina. All the Meal and Forage which the Enemy had amaſſed at Lobositz and Leitmeritz was deſtroyed, and all the Boats, and the Bridge which the Auſtrians had lately built there, were burnt. The Van Guard is to be this Day at Budin, where the Enemy has another Magazine of Proviſions.——General Hulſen, on his Part, found the Paſs of Paſberg defended by a Body of Croats, and by the Regiments of Koenigſeg and Andlau. The Cavalry, which paſſed through Prelnitz, attacked the Enemy in the Rear, at the ſame Time that they were attacked by the Infantry, who drove the Auſtrians out of all their Intrenchments. General Renard, with 51 Officers, and 2000 Men, were made Priſoners. Three Pair of Colours, two Standards, and three Pieces of Cannon, were taken. The Pruſſians loſt only 70 Men killed and wounded in the Attack of Paſberg.

Bruſſels, April 28. Letters from Madrid, of the 3d Inſtant ſay, that the King had continual fainting Fits, and that every Moment was expected to be his laſt.

Hamburgh, April 29. Count d'Affry, the French Ambaſſador, has declared, That as the King his Maſter had a particular Intereſt in the Republic's not receding from any of its Claims on the Britiſh Court, he was ordered to acquaint the States, That if the Deputies gone to London did not inſiſt on the immediate Reſtitution of the Veſſels which have been ſeized, and are ſtill detained; and if their High Mightineſſes ſhould relinquiſh any of the Rights and Privileges they enjoy by Treaties, his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty would iſſue poſitive Orders to all French Privateers, to cruize on, ſtop, ſearch, and even carry into French Ports, all Dutch Veſſels without Diſtinction, on board of which ſhould be found Britiſh Commodities; treating them in the ſame Manner as the Engliſh do the trading Ships of the Republic.

Neiſſe, April 29. The Army of Marſhal Daun is very much confined in its Quarters of Cantonment, the Right extending towards [illegible], and the Left towards Arnau. We cannot undertake the Siege of Glatz without firſt forcing the Defiles of Silberberg and de Johannsberg, but more eſpecially thoſe of Wartha, where the Enemy has a Body of Troops, ſupported by that of General Fouquet, which is at Frankenſtein, and near enough to be ſuccoured by the King himſelf. The County of Glatz is in a Manner the Citadel of Sileſia, Bohemia, and Moravia. The Importance of the Opening of this Campaign requires Circumſpection rather than Courage; but the Seaſon of the Year, and the Wants of ſo large an Army, oblige Marſhal Daun to make Uſe of the preſent Delay. The Imperial Houſe never had ſo great a Force on Foot as at preſent: All the ſeveral Corps of which the Army conſiſts are complete, and the whole amounts to 225,000 effective Men, full of Ardour and Good Will, and full of Confidence in their Generals. The King of Pruſſia will likewiſe have in the Field this Campaign above 230,000 Men.

Nuremburg, May 3. It is thought here that Prince Henry of Pruſſia will join Prince Ferdinand with a Body of 20,000 Men. If the Imperialiſts ſhould march towards the [illegible], they will find who they have got to deal with, and the Prince of Deux-Ponts will take this Opportunity to penetrate into Saxony, and to thus prevent the Troops that are left in that Electorate from [illegible] the Operations of Marſhal Daun's Army.

[illegible] Prince Ferdinand [illegible] Day by [illegible] Men, brought by General [illegible]

[illegible] ſay. The Troops under General Wangenheim, that form a Chain along the Lippe, remain quiet in their Poſts.

Paris, April 23. The Field Equipage for the Dauphin, who is to command the Army in the Netherlands, in caſe the Exigency of Affairs ſhould render it neceſſary, is getting ready.

Warſaw, April 17. General Fermor has detached ſeveral Bodies of Troops towards the New Marche and Brandenburg. The Reſt of his Army will follow. The Huſſars and Coſſacks have ſhewed themſelves as far as Landſberg, and ſpread Terror every where. On the 27th Inſt. a Detachment of Light Troops marched to [illegible] to diſlodge the Pruſſians. The latter informed of it's March, placed at ſome Diſtance from the Place, a Squadron of Huſſars, which, notwithſtanding it's advantageous Poſition, was forced to retire, after a vigorous Reſiſtance. The Pruſſians had 14 Huſſars killed, and a great Number wounded. They loſt M. Waſſow, Captain of Dragoons, and another Officer, named Hubenkoff. We took twelve Men, ſeveral Horſes, and a great Quantity of Arms.

Frankfort, April 26. It ſeems the Affair of Bergen has terminated or ſuſpended the Operations of the Campaign for a good while; at leaſt the two Armies are gone from each other, and are at preſent at twenty Leagues Diſtance. In the mean Time, the Marquis de Blaiſel's Corps, which has been joined by Col. Fiſcher, has gained another Advantage over the Allies at Cranberg. The Pruſſian Regiment of Finckenſtein Dragoons ſuffered moſt. It loſt, on this Occaſion, its Standards and Military Cheſt, with a great Number of its Men, who are to be brought here Priſoners of War.

Vienna, April 26. The Ruſſians, to the Number of 120,000 Men, are going to take the Field in three ſeparate Bodies. The Firſt, conſiſting of 60,000, will march towards Great-Glogaw. The other Two, each of 40,000, will take their Route, one into Pomerania, and the other to fix itſelf in the Heart of Pruſſia.

LONDON, May 1.

The Hon. Mr. Alexander has put in a Claim, and proved his Title, as Heir to the Earl of Sterling; whoſe Anceſtor had a Grant to divide Nova-Scotia.

May 3. The Paris Account of the Battle of the 13th paſt, between Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick and the French under the Command of the Duke de Broglio, makes the Loſs of the Allies 4000, and that of the French 2000 Men. And the Berlin Account ſays, that the French had 2225 Men killed, and 4000 wounded; and that the Allies loſt only 1530 killed and wounded.

Lord Anſon is expected to ſet out for Portſmouth in a few Days, to take the Command of a Fleet.

The Charming Jenny, Scott, from London to Cadiz, is taken by a French Frigate of 32 Guns.

May 5. It is reported, that the Dutch Commiſſaries at our Court have, in a Manner, ſettled Matters to mutual Satisfaction; but as we have not ſufficient Authority, we can only ſay that ſuch a Thing is talked of.

They write from Holland, that further Inſtructions had been ſent over to their three Deputies at London, accompanied with a Piece compoſed by a Member of the Regency, proving their Right to Trade to the French Colonies, of which he alledges they cannot be deprived without a manifeſt Violation of the Treaty of 1674. In the Concluſion he inſinuates, that the Republic may poſſibly give up the Trade to the French Colonies directly, but that ſhe will on that Account maintain, with the greateſt Firmneſs, the Liberty of trading to them directly. It is added, that the Declaration of the Count d'Affry of the Severity of the French Admiralties towards Dutch Veſſels, in Caſe too much Complaiſance ſhould be ſhewn to the Engliſh, will induce the Deputies to be on their Guard againſt every vague Temperament that may be propoſed. The Dutch expect much from the great Abilities of M. Boreel, one of the three.

May 8. Twelve Magazines were taken and deſtroyed in Bohemia by the Troops under the Command of Prince Henry of Pruſſia.

Admiral Boſcawen is, with the Ships under his Command, arrived ſafe at Gibraltar.

We hear that the Renown Sloop, which was coming to England with the Diſpatches from Guadaloupe, foundered at Sea.

Extract of a Letter from Paris, April 25.

"Affairs begin to take a favourable Turn. The Advantage gained by the Duke de Broglio is more conſiderable than was thought at firſt. The Court, who are highly pleaſed with the excellent Diſpoſition he made, and the Proofs he gave of his Military Capacity, have ſent Orders to him to advance with a ſtrong Detachment [illegible]

[illegible]

We are informed, that the States General have received Advices from their Deputies in England, which are far from being favourable. It is ſaid a Reſolution hath therefore been taken to ſend more ample Inſtructions to thoſe Gentlemen, couched in the ſtrongeſt Terms: That is to ſay, that they ſhall, as ſoon as poſſible, either conclude Matters amicably, or come to an open Rupture.

May 10. Some Letters from Liſbon, of the 18 of May, inform, that they had received an Account there, that the combined Troops of Spain and Portugal, had been entirely defeated by the Indians in Paraguay.

We hear that the three Deputies from the States of Holland ſet out Yeſterday Morning on their return Home, greatly diſſatisfied at the Reception they met with.

Admiralty-Office, May 1.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Faulkner, of the Windſor, of 60 Guns, to Mr. Cleveland, dated at Liſbon, April 9.

"The 27th paſt we diſcovered four large Ships to Leeward; on giving them Chace, they drew into a Line of Battle a-head, at the Diſtance of about a Cable's Length aſunder, and remained in that Station till we had engaged the ſternmoſt Ship near an Hour, when the three headmoſt made all the Sail they could from us; on ſeeing which, the Ship we were engaged with ſtruck her Colours. She proved to be Le Duc de Chartres, pierced for 60 Guns, had 24 French Twelve Pounders mounted, and 300 Men, 18 of which were killed, and 28 wounded. The Windſor had in this Action 1 Man killed, and 6 wounded. The Priſoners inform me, the Lading of the Le Duc de Chartres conſiſts of ſixty Tons of Gunpowder, One Hundred and fifty Tons of Cordage, Flour, Sail Cloth, Wine, &c.

"The other three Ships that ran off, were Le [illegible], pierced for 50 Guns, had 18 Twelve Pounders mounted, and 300 Men; the Eaſt-India Company, pierced for 54 Guns, had 24 12 Pounders mounted, and 250 Men; and the St. [illegible], pierced for 24 Guns, had 18 twelve Pounders mounted, and 200 Men: They all belonged to the French Eaſt-India Company, ſailed from Port l'Orient the 22d of March, and were bound to Pondicherry."

May 14. His Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, hath ordered all ſuch Officers on his Majeſty's Forces upon the Eſtabliſhment of Ireland, as are abſent, and not on the recruiting Service, to repair immediately to their reſpective Poſts in that Kingdom.

BOSTON, July 2.

We have Advice from Louiſburg, that Admiral Saunders's Fleet received no Damage in the hard Gales of Wind we had here on the 7th and 8th of laſt Month.

Capt. Merriweather, who arrived here laſt Week from Briſtol, informs, that on his Paſſage he ſpoke with a Dutch Ship, the Maſter of which told him, that about the 12th of May laſt, he ſpoke with Admiral Boſcawen's Fleet off Cape Ortugal, bound up the Mediterranean; and that the French Fleet had not ſailed from Breſt, but ſtill remained blocked up in that Harbour, by our Fleet in the Bay.

Extract of a Letter from New-London, June 28.

"A Veſſel is arrived here in 14 Days from Monte Chriſto, the Maſter of which ſays, that the Engliſh Men of War take all the Veſſels bound in and from that Port, and carry them to Jamaica, where they are condemned."

We hear from Newport, Rhode-Iſland, that a Schooner was arrived there in 42 Days from Monte Chriſto, and informs, that ſoon after they came out they were brought to and detained ſome Time by an Engliſh Man of War, who acquainted them that they were going to the Mount, in order to carry all the Engliſh Veſſels they found there to Jamaica.

Yeſterday Evening the Courier came in from Albany, which Place he left laſt Thurſday Afternoon, and informs, That about 8 or 900 French and Indians were come down within a Mile of Herkemar's Fort, on the Mohawk River, but had not yet done any Miſchief, and that our People had taken two of the Indians, and hung them up: That General Amherſt, with all his Troops have been at Lake George for near a Week paſt, where he was making the neceſſary Preparations for carrying on the deſigned Operations againſt the Enemy, and it was thought would ſoon croſs the Lake.

Extract of a Letter to his Excellency from Capt. Halliwell, dated on board the Ship King George, Lat. 37 : 10 : N. Long. 71 : Weſt.

"I have frequent Accounts of 3 Privateers, a Brigantine, Schooner and Sloop cruizing here, of which I have been informed by almoſt every Veſſel I have ſpoke with; on the 17th Inſtant a Veſſel from Antigua was chaſed by them ſome Time, when they had 3 Sloops in Company, but Night coming on left off Chace, after firing 7 Shot at him, which went over him, but being to Windward got clear; ſince and before that I met with ſeveral others who had been fired upon and chaſed; from this Intelligence I ſhall be detained longer on this Station than I expected, without I am lucky enough to meet with theſe ſoon. I am now amongſt the thickeſt of the Whalemen, 7 of them are near us (2 of them have ſpoke To-day) every Perſon who has informed me of theſe Privateers has agreed in their Accounts, the Brigantine large and black Bottom, full of Sails, and a Tier of Guns, not very large, the Schooner two Top-ſails, Stay-ſails, [illegible], &c. the Sloop with a Top-ſail, Stay-ſail, and full of Sails."

Saturday laſt Captain [illegible] in a Sloop arrived here in 13 Days from Louiſburg, by whom we learn, that the [illegible] Frigate, with 20 Sail of Tranſports, [illegible] other Tranſport Ships, and a Number of Sloops, Schooners, &c. with live Stock for the River St. Lawrence as Yeſterday Fortnight.—And that the Garriſon of Louiſburg were very healthy, and Proviſions Plenty.

LONDON.

A Sportive Fancy might amuſe itſelf by a Survey of the Brute Creation, and find out ſuch Animals as would bear a Compariſon with moſt of the Kingdoms and States in Europe: We might do our Gallick Friends the Honour to place them at the Head of a Liſt of Beaſts on this Occaſion. Suppoſe, then, we ſhould compare them to a Fox, ever on the Watch to ſteal the Poultry from the neighbouring Farms; his Wiles and Doublings aptly enough repreſent their Chicane in the Obſervation of Treaties.——A Wolf, may well enough deſign the Empreſs-Queen; whoſe cruel and ferocious Diſpoſition has ſtained whole Rivulets with the Blood of murdered Lambs.—The Marmote, gives us a lively Picture of Spaniſh Indolence; ſhe hides her Head in the cold Seaſon of Danger and Difficulties, and patiently waits the Sunſhine of Peace to ſhew herſelf.—The buſy Pertneſs of the Squirrel, puts us in Mind of his Sicilian Majeſty, ſkipping from Bough to Bough in Search of Golden Fruit.—His Sardinian Majeſty, like a Pointer, marks his Prey, and waits a Signal from the Fowler to ſtart it.——The unwieldy Figure of an Ox gives us an Idea of the Ruſſians, who know not their own Strength, but ſtalk about, with unmeaning Loftineſs.—The half-reaſoning Elephant, as Pope calls him, denotes the Greatneſs and Wiſdom of the Turkiſh Empire.—The Swedes are Village Curs, who impotently bark at the noble Steed that traverſes their Town.—The Poles are the amphibious Otter; Beaſts of no Conſequence, either by Land or Water.—England may be compared to her own Bull-dogs; peaceable, if let alone; when provoked, never letting go her Hold, 'till ſhe has brought her Enemy to the Ground.——The Mole, repreſents the blind Batavian, looking under Ground for Wealth, and careleſs of what paſſes above.——The Lyon, is emblematical of Pruſſian Courage; though beſet with cruel and rapacious Enemies, he keeps them all at Bay, erects his ſhaggy Main, and deals Deſtruction with his tremendous Tail.——The States of Germany are Waſps, who ſting the noble Beaſt, whom he, by laſhing his own Sides, may ſoon deſtroy.——His Holineſs is the timorous Hare; who hearing the Hounds on every Side, ſeems doubtful which way to direct her Steps.——The Venetians are the ſtately Camel; who with ſteady Pace, keep in their beaten Track of Politics.——The Hungarians are the faithful Spaniel; who the more they are beat, become the more obedient to their Tyrant Maſter.——And the Genoeſe are Rabbits; wantonly friſking about in Time of Safety; but when Danger appears, burying themſelves in the Holes of Neutralities.——This is the State of Europe.——Where is the ſagacious Beaſt, that can reconcile ſuch different Tempers?

WILLIAMSBURG, June 29.

To the PRINTER of the VIRGINIA Gazette.

SIR,

AS I publiſhed in your Gazette (N°. 436) under a fictitious Name, the Mention of a Machine for expeditiouſly threſhing out Grain in the completeſt Manner, being the moſt expeditious of any yet invented, in order to know how the Invention ſhould be approved of by the Public; but the Generality not apprehending the Propoſal to be genuine, or looking upon it as the Production of ſome idle Perſon only to amuſe the Readers, I deſire you will inſert the following in your next Paper.

I PROPOSE a Threſhing-Mill (the Machine mentioned in your Paper) to be ſet up on any clear Plantation or Farm, to be moved by a ſmall Breeze of Wind, and to threſh out 100 Buſhels of Wheat in 12 Hours, with a moderate Gale; as well as at other Times, to beat Bark, break Flax and Hemp, beat Cyder, or (if required) to beat Indian Corn into a fine Meal in a very little Time; or, in ſhort, to do any ſuch Kind of laborious Work. This Mill to be tended by one Perſon, of common Underſtanding, and turned to the Wind by one Perſon or two at moſt; but when the Wind blows freſh, it will diſpatch the Wheat as faſt as four or five People can bring in the Sheaves, and carry off the Straw. I propoſe that the Building ſhall not exceed Half the Height of Griſt Wind-Mills, the Threſhing-Floor not being above ſeven Feet from the Ground, and the Aſcent by eight or nine eaſy Steps, on the Outſide; to be ſtopped by the Perſon tending it in a Minute, and ſet to Work in a Quarter of an Hour, at any Time. The Expence will be very little more than the Timber and Plank for an Houſe about 17 Feet long by 13, or 14 Feet wide, the Pitch ſomething higher than common Houſes of that Conſtruction; the Iron-Work that would be neceſſary would not coſt above 20 or 30 Shillings, excluſive of Nails for the Houſe. I propoſe, if I can get an Hundred Subſcribers in this Colony, Maryland and Pennſylvania, to build ſo many of theſe Mills, as may be near me, at 50 Pounds each, the Timber and Plank being brought to the Place; or, in Caſe the Subſcribers are too remote for my conſtant Attendance, I will engage to inſtruct any good Carpenters that Gentlemen may employ, who underſtand the Framing of Houſes well, effectually to build the remaining Quantity of them, for 25 Pounds each.

On the whole, if I find that this Piece of Mechaniſm, never before put in Practice, be acceptable to the Public (which I may eaſily have an Opportunity of knowing, by Gentlemen advertiſing their Approbation in ſome Public News-Paper) I would immediately ſet Subſcription-Papers on Foot at the ſeveral Places following, viz. At Williamſburg, Annapolis, and Philadelphia; and to the End that Gentlemen, who may incline to favour this ſo advantageous a Thing to Mankind, may not ſuffer any Diſappointment, I do not deſire, nor expect, any Thing from the Subſcribers, unleſs the Project ſhall ſucceed. I further engage to all thoſe who are convenient to me, that theirs ſhall be built as ſoon as poſſible, and the whole in four Years, from the Time of ſigning the Subſcription; the firſt ſubſcribed for to be firſt built, and to commence this preſent Year.

Mill-Creek, near Hampton, JACOB WALKER.

NEW-YORK, July 9.

Wedneſday Capt. Duncan Brown, in the Snow Friendſhip, arrived here in 32 Days from Gambia, on the Coaſt of Africa: He ſays that on the 9th of May the Ship Upton, of Liverpool, Capt. Burton, arrived there with a French Ship, which he had taken off the Canary Iſlands, with a Cargo on board valued at 5000 l. Sterling; that the Depſey, of London, late Capt. Glaſs (with 14 other Engliſh Veſſels) were at Gambia, but that the Crew of the Depſey were all dead, and that he carried her to Cape Deverdaſs.

Captain Stewart failed from Briſtol the 16th of May, in Company with 13 Sail, one of which was a Brig for Boſton; Captain Hatton for Philadelphia, ſeveral for Virginia and Newfoundland, the reſt for Africa, under Convoy of his Majeſty's Ship the Aldborough; but left the Fleet about 300 Leagues to the Weſtward of Scilly.

When Captain Stewart left England, it was thought by the moſt judicious in Briſtol, that a Dutch War was inevitable; that a greater Preſs was never known in England, and that 10,000 Seamen were demanded from the Town of Glaſgow alone.

Extract of a Letter from Albany, dated July 5.

"The following is a Copy of a Letter from Lake George, viz. The ſecond Inſtant, 16 of the Jerſey Blues were ſent without the Camp to gather a little Bruſh for the General's Baker, but were not an Hour gone before they were ſurpriſed in Sight of the Camp by a Party of the Enemy, conſiſting of about 240, who killed and ſcalped ſix, wounded two, took four Priſoners, and only four of the whole Party eſcaped. They ſhewed themſelves plainly to the whole Army after they got the Scalps, gave a Halloo, and then made off to their Battoes, which were not more than two Miles from the Head of the Lake. A large Party was ordered out after them, but in vain. They butchered our People in a moſt ſhocking Manner, by cutting Pieces of Fleſh out of their Necks, Thighs and Legs."

The Earl of Leiceſter Packet, Capt. Morris, arrived at Falmouth in 30 Days from this Port.

Extract of a Letter from the Camp at Lake-George, June 27.

——"The moſt of our Artillery is up, and we are raiſing the Battoes every Day: The Sloop is not raiſed yet.——All the Artificers in the Army are employed; and indeed I can't ſay but what every one is.——The French come in Sight of our Camp very often.——Mr. Turnbull, an Officer of the Rangers, and four of the Light Infantry of Lord John Murray's Royal Highland Regiment, went out Yeſterday in a Whale Boat to fiſh about the Iſlands in the Lake; but while they were fiſhing they perceived three Whale Boats and a Bark Canoe coming out altogether from the ſecond Iſland, and making towards them. At firſt Mr. Turnbull thought they were ſome of our own People; but when they came nigher he ſoon diſcovered them to be Enemies; on which he and his Men made the beſt of their Way for the Shore, and the Enemy purſued them very hard, eſpecially the Bark Canoe, in which were 12 or 14 Indians, but our People happily got to Shore before them, and ran up thro' the Woods: The Enemy followed them for four Miles, but could not take any of them Priſoners. They all four came ſafe home to Camp about 8 o'Clock the Day after; but without either Coat, Breeches, Shoes or Hoſe.——

By a Letter from Lake-George we are informed, that the Army in general keep their Health very well, and are all in high Spirits.

General AMHERST, we hear, intended to croſs Lake-George, with the whole Army, on Yeſterday.

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.

At a Court of Admiralty, held here laſt Week, the four Prizes, lately brought in by the Britannia Privateer, Capt. M'Pherſon, were all condemned.

Extract of a Letter from Boſton, June 25, 1759.

"A Veſſel is juſt arrived here in 8 Days from Louiſburg, by which we learn, that a French Schooner was ſent in there, taken by Admiral Durell's Squadron, within 15 Leagues of Quebec. The Schooner was bound down the River, and informed the Admiral that two French Ships of the Line, three Frigates, and thirteen or fifteen Tranſports, had got up to Quebec, and others were daily expected; but we hope our Fleets will prevent them."

We have Advice from Albany, that two Families were lately cut off, within five or ſix Miles of Sir William Johnſon's.

Extract of a Letter from Pittſburgh, June 26, 1759.

"There lately arrived here two Indian Meſſengers from Chineſſi, a Town of the Seneca Nation, with a Meſſage to all the Tribes ſettled on the Ohio, acquainting them, that the Six Nations had taken, near that Place, Joncœur, the famous French Interpreter, with another Officer, and killed a Third, whoſe Scalp, with the two French Officers, and ſome French Soldiers, they had ſent to Sir William Johnſon."

Extract of another Letter from the ſame Place, dated the Firſt Inſtant.

"The Convoy is arrived ſafe, which would have been attacked by a large Body of French and Indians, if they had been one Day longer on their March. Upwards of 400 Indians, of different Nations, have been lately at this Fort, and were all cloathed. The Beaver Chief, with ſeveral other Chiefs, of ſundry Tribes, and their Attendants, are expected."

ANNAPOLIS, July 19.

We hear that on Wedneſday laſt Week a Party of French and Indians made a ſudden Attack upon Loyal Hannon, killed Three of the Royal Americans, and carried off Two Priſoners. On Thurſday they attacked Stony-Creek, and killed Capt. Jones of the Pennſylvanians, Three Privates, and one Woman, who were looking over the Redoubt; and would in all Likelihood have carried that Poſt, had not Four Hundred of the Royal Americans very fortunately enter'd it about an Hour before. On Friday they made an Attempt upon Rays-Town, and killed Three or Four there: At which laſt Place a Field Officer's Guard is kept, as they expect another Viſit from them. 'Tis ſaid that by Advices from Pittſburg, this Party conſiſts of Three Hundred Indians and Sixty French; of which we hope ſoon to have a more particular Account.

Laſt Monday Capt. David Lewis, in the John and Jane, who came out with the Fleet, arrived in South River; the whole Fleet being now arrived, except Captain Montgomery in the Cato, who met with ſome Damage ſoon after ſhe came out, and put back.

There have lately been ſeveral Robberies committed at Bladenſburg, and Threatening Letters dropp'd; and a few Days ſince a young Gentleman was ſhot at as he was leaning over the Rail of the Bridge, and the Bullet went thro' his Hat (within about an Inch of his Head) and knock'd it off.

A LIST of the PRIZES drawn in the MARLBOROUGH LOTTERY, will be inſerted in our next GAZETTE.
